

FCC Commissioners,

I would like to urge you NOT to further relax regulations permitting corporate monopolization of media sources. I support your stated goal of encouraging competition, diversity, and local control/ownership of newspapers, radio stations, television, etc.

I hope your revised regulations actually DO reflect these goals, because a true democracy depends on public debate and consideration of information from a VARIETY of sources and viewpoints, not mega-corporate brainwashing!

Sincerely, Lisbeth Seil